

CeCe: Yes sir, I am talking to you.

Sonny Korri: Now that Ed wants to be the one to distribute this in the USA.

CeCe: Right, and

Sonny Korri: We are saying, because of the pressure we have from the people. We want something written that we have a deal with him to handle this case. To the (inaudible), a deal between us and this company or him. When we receive that then we will announce the information on the net. Not agreement. We are not talking about the agreement, the agreement is private.

Then we will write an article now everything is cleared, the tape will be released as soon as possible. But, by this network in America.

Ed Hale: OK, I'll tell you what.

Sonny Korri: And then these people will have to send an email to Ed and say we understand (inaudible) we are not releasing it.

CeCe: The agree would be something to the extent, of what you are asking for is "we such and such are releasing this to Ed Hale, Plains Radio and for his release to" and then do you want to chose who is going to he is going to release it to or are you leaving that up to him?

Sammy Korri: No, that is up to him. We just want a reasonable person that we can leave the tape to. Because what the American people are fearing they are saying is don't release the tape to someone who is not signed anything because they might (inaudible).

CeCe: Well, then. OK. What you want is something that says we are releasing this information to, um, Mr. Hale and it is our understanding that any release of this audio tape will be released in it's entirety without any editing.

Sammy Korri: Without any editing and the person to decide where to be released and when will be Ed Hale. Hale. How do you pronounce it?

CeCe: Yes, that correct. Hale. Mr. Hale has control over the release of this tape.

Sammy Korri: (Inaudible) Because it has to be written down so that we put the responsibility. If anything goes wrong, we can produce a document later and say the tape is with him and he is the one to release. So, whatever happens. I mean (inaudible) credibility here.

Ed Hale: Let me slip in here and say one thing. Once you release that tape to me, on your website, I want you to publish my website which is plainsradio.com . On plainsradio.com, I will put up a statement to the fact that this tape will be released tomorrow night at 8pm Central time.

Sammy Korri: Yes

Ed Hale: And that away, I want everyone to know when the tape is going to be released and where.

Sammy Korri: Yes, that one is your decision.

CeCe: Ok, now

Ed Hale: Go ahead, CeCe.

CeCe: You asking though, for this can be protected. So that no one else can, can. Ok, now I think I understand what you're wanting to do. You're wanting perhaps copywrite of this that no one can put it on their website or release it without checking with Ed Hale. Correct?

Sammy Korri: That is correct.

Ed Hale: Alright. Now. Now, the minute I get this tape, what I can do is go online, place it on the web page and file a copywrite with the United States government and nobody can touch it. If they do, their liable.

Sammy Korri: I can tell you that this is a very, very sensitive tape. And is not only what we have written that is bad, there is more information that is going to come out when you view the tape.

Ed Hale: OK

Sammy Korri: It is a very, very important tape and it is very scary, actually.

So you will have to be very careful when you get it and listen to it.

Ed Hale: Well, one of the things I do, and this is what I want to do. Once I interview your reporter, run the tape and talk to your reporter after the tape, or yourself, whoever, I am going to contact. I have, I know, and CeCe knows too that we have a very high contact in the Obama campaign. I am going to call him up and say hey, you are welcome to make comments on this tape, after, afterwards. And let them listen to the tape and let them make their comments and it will be included in the program.

Sammy Korri: Ed. Ed. What I want is your to bind yourself. That you are taking the full responsibility.

CeCe: He doesn't want commentary.

Ed Hale: OK OK I understand.

CeCe: He does not want commentary. If I am understanding the gentleman correctly,

Ed Hale: He just wants the tape played.

CeCe: Is to insure the integrity of the tape, without anyone messing with it.

Altering the tape. He wants it to be produced as Sammy Korri: You make commentary. After. If you play the tape and make your comments, that's OK. But I'm saying nothing should be altered in the tape.

Ed Hale: I will play the tape in its entirety.

Sammy Korri: Yes. And then you can put in your comments, but as long as it does not interfere in the contents of the tape.

Ed Hale: Right. Right. Ok I understand that. I want to play the tape in its entirety and then I would love to be able to interview the reporter who did this also and then play that.

Sammy Korri: No problem. What you should. Can you send us a document then we read it quickly then we send it back to you if we don't agree with some paragraphs then we send it back and you send it back to us quickly .

Ed Hale: OK Do you have such a document yourself? That you could send to me and I sign it?

Sammy Korri: No, I don't have it. That's the problem.

Ed Hale: OK CeCe, can you get us a document like what he's wanting?

CeCe: Umm, I'm not sure, I think you're going to have to talk to one of the attorneys and get them to a

Ed Hale: Well, you have an attorney contact down there in Houston. Can you not get a hold of her today and get her to do something?

CeCe: We can try and get a release for you. Yes.

Ed Hale: OK Ok We'll try to get that done today, sir.

Sammy Korri: Ok, thank you. I will wait for you call back when you are ready.

Ed Hale: OK, will do. Alright. Bye bye.

Sammy Korri: And when you decide, the day you decide to release the tape, it would be nice if you would let me know, so that I know

Ed Hale: Well, I can tell you right now that the tape will be released Monday night at 8PM Central time. Which will be August, October 20th.

Sammy Korri: Then let us do the paperwork very quickly.

Ed Hale: Ok Alright. Thank you sir.

Sammy Korri: Then I read it and then if I see something we want added or changed then I will correct it and then we send it back quickly on email. And then now, when we finalize, then we will give you a go ahead.

Ed Hale: Alright. Thank you sir.

Sammy Korri: Thank you Bye bye

Ed Hale: OK, let me stop this recorder.
